

Jim Wilcox at Greenville Creek, a privately owned meadow in Lassen County, 2016.

Jim receiving the 2010 National Wetlands Award in Washington D.C., joined by his father, James Wilcox, Sr. on the right.

Jim's humble response when he was told by Plumas Corp staff that he had been selected for the National Wetlands Award in 2010.

James G. Wilcox, Jr. celebrates 30 years with Plumas Corporation. Photo taken in 2005.

Jim in his early years with Plumas Corp at Greenhorn Creek with other Plumas Corp staff, (from left) Valerie Nellor, Rob Russell, Jim Wilcox, unknown, and Leah Wills.

One of Jim's early projects, Wolf Creek in the community of Greenville, in the early 1990's.